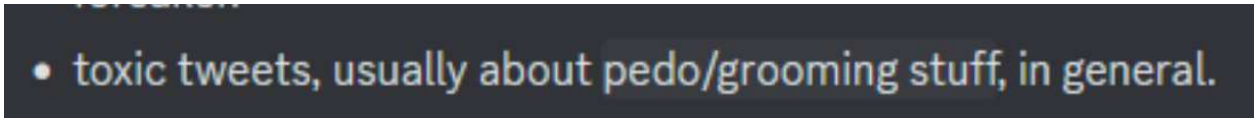
Hello. My name is melon and i wanted to make this response doc because i really dont think i explained my actions too well or people were just simply lying about what I've done. So I'll go over it quickly(With proof). I hope that you guys actually do take this into consideration and if you do not like me that is completely ok!

So first let's talk about the first point they've said ABOUT me that is really considered the proof.



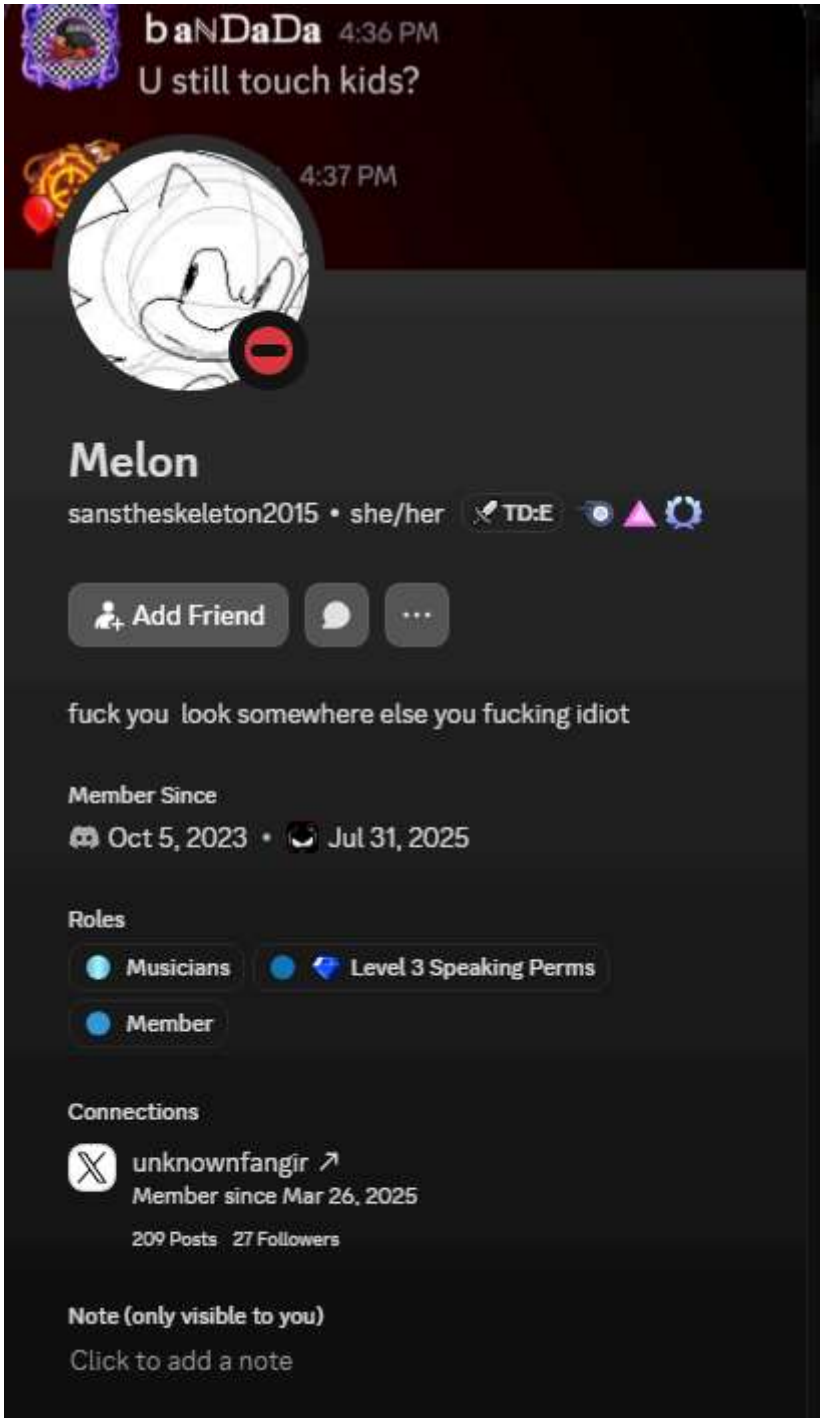
This screenshot is the only one I would say that is not out of context and my explanation for this and another one I will bring up which is out of context. This screenshot was me giving my opinion on someone who I would've perceived to have just posted this for clout. Because my whole reasoning is that I don't understand why you would have to post about your rapist dying to get likes.

I am also a victim of attempted r*pe when i was 6 by my cousin and when i was 11 by my female friend I knew in a higher grade. I do not take rape lightly and its a reason i post about people who usually make fun fo the subject. This is simply me acting out of anger and this post is already deleted. So i dont know why they brought this here like i said rape was good.

I TAKE FULL accountablity for this post and realize it was very dumb and horrible to say at the time but it wasnt me justifying rape.

This is just simply a joke. I don't know why the hell it's in here??? I’m not calling the dude a groomer.

This screenshot is just put in here to just fucking say that im bad for having an opinion that i do not like the om devs for personal reasons. This is completely unrelated to anything doing with grooming or toxic tweets.



AGAIN. Nitpicking my fucking bio instead of actually making the argument for why i would be considered a danger to the community. Not to mention papa bear told me to change this already and i have. This is just digging for stuff that isn't even related.

I'm beyond fucking disgusted by your behaviour specially when this uses my partner's artstyle to mock people affected by them.
I do not fucking give a shit if this is ragebait or just another joke, you're the main reason as to why me and others will never be able to fully he...

nigga is 32 years old playing forsaken. ur like as old as my dad unc you gotta chill on pedophile nazi hitler game with fat fetish and groomed kids chilly yume.png!? @chauquots · Nov 6 dude??

Another out of context and harmless tweet. Not to mention forsaken literally is supporting SOUL.

This has been stated multiple times but they feel the need to shield for forsaken like the game isn't run by nasty people.

Melon @unknownfangjr · 8h ill complain about that nothing burger character until they release fleetway boy plum @theoriginalume · 19h
the most annoying person you know is complaining about tripwire right now 234

Do i not have a right to complain about a character shoehorned into a game replacing a character i like which is tails doll with this whole thing about tripwire. I just prefer if outcome released killers instead of cosmetics. Once again an opinion tweet.

THIS is the proof about me talking about grooming or joking about it. Like what??? THIS WAS literally responding making fun of a person who fucking groomed people named SLINGOMINGO. And if you think this is proof of me just seeing grooming as a joke. You clearly haven't seen the doc on a person called HeyIM Unknown or the doc on a FNAS creator called piggy who groomed my ex at 14 while he was 18.

quick tldr if you dont wanna read below

- calling ppl from om team groomers and lowkey just constant shitting on it that way + forsaken NEVER did I call them groomers in a serious manner. I've only joked that they were all diddy bluds and that's it. If thats your evidence for me calling them groomers then this is just completely taking my words seriously. Why should i get kicked off each project for just shitting on a game that i think isn't good and has a very obnoxious fanbase along with forsaken.

- transphobic comments

Time to address the main problem with this whole expose thing. And its the main thing that pisses me off with being taken out of context like this.

Melon @unknownfangir · Nov 13

@unknownfangir
bro.. you're a man. criticizing other men because you transitioned into a women
Melon @unknownfangir · Nov 13
i dont want to say the quiet part outloud but... nigga you used to be a man

This i would like to say, IS NOT TRANSPHOBIA. You people who made this didnt even do your own research to see what the tweet i was replying to was saying. This person literally as a trans women was saying I hate men. And being very misandrist. I just simply said with respect that you can’t be talking about hating men when you have transitioned into a woman from a man. I respect people from all fronts but it doesn't mean you just get to talk shit whenever you want to. The original tweet was deleted so i don't know how they would even refer to this as transphobia.

I WOULD REALLY like to say how people would twist this because this was a comment made out of anger and i've already apologized for this. But I would like to ask what victim did i say this to in question? A Fucking zoophile who is disgusting with their messages named amber and nobody support amber. Amber tried to use transgender identity to hide their actions and its the main reason i said this out of anger. Cause most fnf trans people dont deserve to have their rep ruined by some nasty person who legit is scum using their identity.

You can look for more details here on this account who exposed said person..

I don't think so?
I just wanted to report it, because someone who constantly makes transphobic, racist, and other comments can end up ruining the team's reputation.
And even more so by making false accusations about the Outcome Memories team calling them "groomers" and saying a lot of disgusting things about "shipping a certain character with minors." To me, this is something that should be investigated/ resolved
And still using multiple random accounts to constantly attack others + extremely unnecessary comments like the ones she made that constantly discriminate against people is extremely embarrassing

Papa Bear TD:E 16/11/2025 10:33
ok well
we have an openly transgender person on the team and yet he is professional and civil so if he's being a jackass on some external platform, how does this affect me?

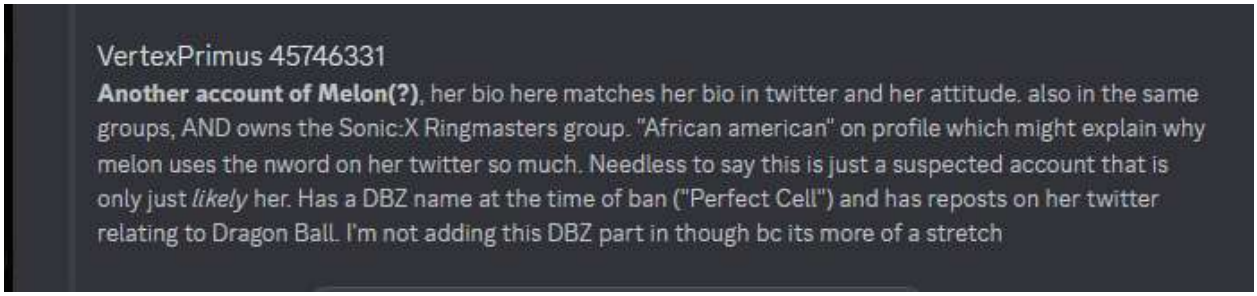
Z CARLOS who is constantly making racist and transphobic comments??? You guys quite literally took this screenshot as papa not caring when in reality he was just saying from what he has seen vs 2 FUCKING tweets that you guys pulled from your ass that i've been respectful to trans team members. I ONLY SEE 2 tweets that could be considered transphobic while you guys list a game called terminal reality which i co own, WHICH IS OWNED BY A TRANS MAN. This is crazy reaching and very immature. .ALSO I AM BLACK. I dont know how i am racist for just saying the n word which i can reclaim. Plus you guys kept calling me she/her in your little expose announcement which literally would mean im a trans person who is transphobic for 2 instances of transphobia (According to these people)

Then you say not to harass yet you list all my fucking projects i work on and include someone who clearly wasnt my alt but you guys jumped the gun in accusing him cause me and the dude like DRAGON BALL.



VertexPrimus 45746331
Another account of Melon(?), her bio here matches her bio in twitter and her attitude. also in the same groups, AND owns the Sonic:X Ringmasters group. "African american" on profile which might explain why melon uses the nword on her twitter so much. Needless to say this is just a suspected account that is only just likely her. Has a DBZ name at the time of ban ("Perfect Cell") and has reposts on her twitter relating to Dragon Ball. I'm not adding this DBZ part in though bc its more of a stretch

quick tldr if you dont wanna read below
• calling ppl from om team groomers and lowkey just constant shitting on it that way + forsaken
• toxic tweets, usually about pedo/grooming stuff, in general.
• unrelated but "hates gooners" but has roboobs ugc + saved avatars with it im pretty sure lmao
• transphobic comments

In conclusion, THIS was the most unprofessional handling of a situation I've ever seen. Why do you not kick the 8 people who rans the community off after they quite literally advertised false premises and info. This is why I do not trust the Returns team, which is run by a bunch of immature kids. I did not intract with them at all and they were involved in making the project TD ECLIPSED go down so they can say “hey GUYS! COME TO OUR PROJECT” without getting proper proof. I will clarify, I am not a transphobe, i dont support rape (victim of it myself) and i am not a toxic person. I apologize for the trans tweets as they come off as insensitive and I'm completely fine with taking accountability. But trying to ruin my life and the project I work on is the most disgusting thing you could ever do.
That’s all I have to say and I hope you guys take what I'm saying into consideration at least even if you don't agree with me. .
